CHRIS KAMALI : REAL ESTATE CONSULTANT : 6111 JOHNSON CT. #110 PLEASANTON CA 94588

Dear Home Buyer or Seller,

When we were looking to buy our first house we interviewed a number of realtors. Everyone seemed either inexperienced or so pushy and set in their ways that we didn't think they would adapt to our specific needs.

Then we met Chris Kamali. Right from the start we knew he wasn't like the other realtors. He always listened to our concerns--even the crazy ones--and helped us understand our options at every step of the way. Chris treated us like we were the most important clients in the world. He's a patient guy. He's honest. He's smart. He's the realtor you want on your side of the table.

Buying our first house was intimidating, but Chris made our lives easier in a number of ways. He helped us figure out our housing criteria, then set up appointments and drove us to every house we viewed. When we found our dream house, Chris negotiated the purchase price and terms for substantially lower than we thought we were going to pay, and then advised us and managed every aspect of the inspections and close of escrow. His skills and instincts repeatedly worked in our favor. Could we have done it without him? Sure, but we would have paid a lot more and got a lot less.

We're grateful to Chris Kamali for all his hard work. We're telling our friends and family about him, we're passing out his cards, and you can bet when we're ready to sell we'll be calling on Chris again. It's hard to imagine going through such a complex process without his expertise.

Sincerely,
